

I feel telemarketers are using my phone, without compensation to me, to conduct their business. That should not be. Also, they should not be allowed to dial numbers simultaneously. It is very frustrating to answer your phone several times a day when no one is on the other end.